Sisters' program proposal

Proposed by

Badr Sisters' Dawah group

June 28th, 2013

In the Name of Allah Most Gracious Most Merciful

"O you who have believed, seek help through patience and prayer. Indeed, Allaah is with the patient."[Quran 2: 153]

In determining the way in which a Muslim should deal with a time of crisis, it is important to analyze what exactly a crisis is in the context of Islamic understanding as it relates to the Qadar of Allah (SW)

A crisis indicated a pivotal period of time in which a situation or condition seems unstable, chaotic, and liable to sudden, drastic and most often dangerous change. It implies the cliff that gives way to disaster; when every move is crucial, either facilitating a healthy and progressive resolution or initiating a descent in to catastrophe.

In such situation, where a person is put on a dilemma of whether one is solving or worsening the situation, it is important to go back to the Quran and search for the answer. As mentioned in the opening of this statement, one must always seek help from Allah (SW) through patience and prayer, nothing less more. This will avert the danger and provide the solution.

The sisters' program for this year is shaped to teach all of us on how to conduct ourselves at these times of crisis and know each and every one of us are responsible in alleviating their burden through the help of Allah by patience and prayer.

Imaam At-Tirmithi  stated that the Prophet  said: "Verily, the greatness of the reward is tied to the greatness of the trial: When Allaah loves a people, He (Allaah) puts them to trial. Whoever accepts it, will enjoy Allaah's pleasure and whoever is displeased with it, will incur Allaah's displeasure." [At-Tirmithi]
